

Mayfair Library

History

Mayfair Library is an historic building in the heart of Mayfair, ideally placed for great hotels, restaurants and cafes nearby. It is also right next door to Mount Street Gardens which works very well for group photography and couple portraits.

Mayfair Library became the temporary venue for Westminster Register Office in 2014. Bookings for Old Marylebone Town Hall re-opened at the end of 2017 and the first ceremony was held in January 2018. Ceremonies at Mayfair Library are now winding down and new bookings are unlikely.

Mayfair Library required urgent roof repairs in 2017 and is currently covered by scaffolding. The front has been overlaid with a photo wrap (of the library) which hides the scaffolding very effectively.

It does make it darker inside and I thoroughly recommend asking for the blinds to be raised to their full height if you are employing a professional photographer.

Rooms

Mayfair Library It has two quiet and romantic ceremony rooms on the first floor:

Mayfair Room – the larger room has a long aisle and seating for up to 38. It has windows down the entire length of one side of the room making it lovely and light. It has a period stained glass bay window at the ceremony end overlooking Mount Street Gardens. It has two vases with stylish cream and green silk flowers sat on the impressive ceremony table.

Ceremony capacity: 38
